ANNOUNCEMENTS

Behaviorists for Social Action Journal functions as a forum for the discussion of ethical, social, and political issues as they relate to the field of behavior analysis. It serves as a vehicle for the critical appraisal of the effects, both practical and theoretical, of behavior analysis as an actual or potential force capable of contributing to the oppression as well as the liberation of humanity.

The BFSA Journal is the official journal of Behaviorists for Social Action, a special interest group of the Association for Behavior Analysis. As such, we are mandated to print the following:

"The Association for Behavior Analysis recognizes and encourages expression of the diverse interests of its members, some of whom have organized themselves into different special interest groups. The Behaviorists for Social Action Journal is published by one of these interest groups, Behaviorists for Social Action." The ideas expressed in this publication do not represent the opinions or beliefs of the Association as a whole.

Requests for information concerning membership in BFSA and subscriptions to the BFSA Journal should be addressed to:

The BFSA Journal is one of 380 national social justice publications included in the 1982 edition of the U.S. Progressive Periodicals Directory. The Directory provides current information for each of the social change publications it lists, including address, phone number, editor, publishers, date founded, frequency, and subscription costs. Its listings are grouped in categories such as civil liberties, cultural, environmental, health, international concerns, labor, peace, and religious. Examples of other publications included in the listing are El Salvador Alert, Nutrition Action, and Solidarity. The Directory is intended to facilitate communication among individuals and publications active in social change, and may be ordered for $4.00 (including postage; $2.50 for five or more copies) from:
